

Eye Protection

Eye protection should be used during patient care. Eye protection must cover the front and sides of the eyes. Below are examples of approved and unapproved eye protection.

Approved Eye Protection:

Unapproved Eye Protection:

Glasses that do not cover sides of eyes, personal eyeglasses and glasses with open slats on sides are not approved eye protection.