

Masks with valves must be covered or replaced.

If your mask has a valve, ask a team member for assistance.

While the valve can help keep you safe, it may not protect others around you.

Examples of masks with valves:

